

Children's Cell Newsletter

September 17, 2023

Dear Parents,

Thank you so much for allowing your child to join our service. I'd love for you to use this newsletter to review this week's Bible story with your child at home.

Today, we'll learn about "Jesus Shared a Last Meal" (Matthew 26; Mark 14; Luke 22). The Bible teaches us that God does have something better for us. The story of the Bible reveals God's plan to send a better Prophet, Priest, and King who would save people from their sins. We will learn that Jesus shared a meal with His disciples and revealed that He had come to make a new and better covenant.

Review the gospel and encourage your child to speak with you if they have questions. Remind your child that Jesus is our perfect Priest who was tempted but never sinned. Discuss how we do sin and we cannot make ourselves perfect. Explain that Jesus became our sacrifice for sin so that we can be forgiven. When we trust in Jesus, He gives us new hearts that desire to love and obey Him. Then pray, praising God for Jesus' sacrifice and the gift of the new covenant.

Grace and blessings in Christ,

Jesus Shared a Last Meal

BIBLE PASSAGE: Matthew 26; Mark 14; Luke 22

KEY PASSAGE: Hebrews 4:15

BIG PICTURE QUESTION: How is Jesus the perfect Priest?

Jesus was the perfect sacrifice for sin,
and He speaks to God the Father for us today.

Jesus and His disciples were in Jerusalem to celebrate Passover and remember how God had delivered His people from slavery in Egypt. Jesus sent Peter and John to get the Passover meal ready. He said, “Go into the city, and you will meet a man carrying a jug of water. Follow him.”

Jesus said that the man with the water would go to a house, and the homeowner would show Peter and John a large room upstairs with furniture in it. That was the place Jesus wanted them to get the Passover meal ready. So Peter and John did as Jesus said.

When the Passover meal was ready, Jesus and His disciples reclined to eat. Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray Me.” The disciples were upset, but Jesus knew this was part of God’s plan. Each of Jesus’ disciples asked, “Surely not I, Lord?”

But when Judas Iscariot (iss KAR ih aht) said, “Surely not I, Teacher?” Jesus said, “Yes, it’s you.”

Then Jesus took the bread, gave thanks to God for it, broke it, and then gave it to His disciples to eat. Jesus said, “This is My body, which I am giving for you. Do this to remember Me.”

Jesus took the cup and gave it to His disciples. They drank from it, and Jesus said, “This is My blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.” Jesus showed His disciples with the bread and the drink that He is the true Passover Lamb.

They sang a hymn together, and then they went out to the Mount of Olives outside the city.

God’s people had broken the old covenant, and God promised to make a new covenant to forgive sins. The new covenant says that everyone who turns away from sin and trusts in Jesus’ death and resurrection will be forgiven of his sins and will have eternal life.

Key Passage

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin.
