

Children's Cell Newsletter

February 4, 2024

Dear Parents,

I'd love for you to use this newsletter to review this week's Bible story with your child at home.

This week, we'll learn about "Peter Confronted Sin" (Acts 4-5). Jesus has generously given us everything we need. He promises us a future in heaven where we will have the greatest treasure—Christ Himself. We will learn that we can be generous because Jesus has been generous to us.

Review the gospel and encourage your child to speak with you if they have questions.

Tell your child that the greatest gift anyone can receive is to trust in Jesus! Remind your child that sharing the gospel with others is the greatest gift we can give them. As we choose to be generous with our time, money, or other gifts, we can share the gospel.

Then pray, thanking God for Jesus and asking Him to help us be generous.

Grace and blessings in Christ,

Danny Sungshin Park

BIBLE PASSAGE: Acts 4-5

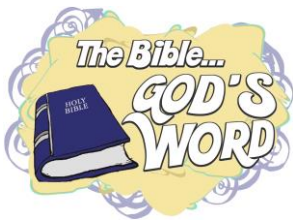

KEY PASSAGE: Romans 10:14

BIG PICTURE QUESTION:

Why does God command Christians to tell others about Jesus?

We tell others about Jesus

so they will hear and believe the good news.

The early church was growing. By the power of the Holy Spirit, the apostles were telling people that Jesus had been raised from the dead. A large group of believers met together in Jerusalem. They shared everything they had. If someone had more than he needed, he gladly gave it away so everyone had what he needed.

One man, Barnabas, sold a field and gave the money to the apostles. The apostles used the money to help people in need. Everyone who had land or houses did the same. Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, sold some land and pretended to give all of the money to the apostles, but they kept some of it for themselves.

When Ananias brought the money to the apostles, Peter asked him, “Why are you lying to the Holy Spirit? You could have been honest about what you did with the money, but instead you lied—not to us, but to God.” When Ananias heard this, he fell down, died, and was buried. Everyone who heard about this was filled with fear.

About three hours later, Sapphira came to the apostles. She did not know what had happened to her husband. Peter asked her, “Is this all the money you got for the land?”

“Yes,” she said. “That’s all of it.”

Peter said, “Why did you and your husband agree to test the Lord?” Then Sapphira fell dead too. Great fear came on everyone in the church and all who heard about these things.

Ananias and Sapphira wanted to look generous, but they were greedy and chose to lie. The Holy Spirit changes our hearts to want to share with those in need. Jesus generously gave all He had so we can share in His riches and have forgiveness and eternal life.

Key Passage

How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed?
And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard?
And how are they to hear without someone preaching?
