Dear Parents,

This week, we'll learn about “Abraham Followed God” (Genesis 11–13). God called Abram to leave his home and go to a land He would show him. Abram obeyed, and God promised to bless him and make him into a great nation. After traveling to Egypt during a famine, Abram and his nephew Lot separated due to their growing wealth. Lot chose the fertile land near Sodom, while Abram stayed in Canaan. God reaffirmed His promise to Abram, saying his descendants would be more than he could count. Abram trusted God, and through his descendants, Jesus came to bless the whole world.

I hope this message will inspire your child to grow in the love and light of Jesus. To help reinforce the lesson at home, please discuss the following points with your child:

- Abram's Obedience: Talk about how Abram trusted and followed God's call to leave his home and family.
- God's Promises: Discuss how God promised to bless Abram and make him the father of many nations.
- Jesus Fulfills the Promise: Explain how God kept His promise by sending Jesus, a descendant of Abram, to bless the world and save us.

Pray with your child, thanking God for His promises and for sending Jesus to rescue us.

Grace and blessings in Christ,

Danny Sungshin Park
Pastor of Children's Cell

KEY PASSAGE: Psalm 100:5

BIG PICTURE QUESTION: Does God keep His promises?

Yes, God always keeps His promises because He is faithful.

Abram was a descendant of Noah. He started a journey with his wife, Sarai; his father, Terah; and his nephew Lot to the land of Canaan. But on the way there, they decided to settle in the city of Haran instead.

God spoke to Abram. He said, “Go from your land and your family to a place I will show you. I will bless you and make you into a great nation, and the whole world will be blessed through you.” Abram went, just as God told him. Sarai and Lot went with him. God led Abram to the land of Canaan. God said, “This is the land I will give to your children.” So Abram built an altar to the Lord there.

A famine came to the land and the people did not have enough food to eat, so Abram, Sarai, and Lot went to Egypt. After some time, they traveled back to Canaan and went to the place where Abram had built the altar—between Bethel and Ai. At this time, Abram was very rich. He had many livestock, silver, and gold. Lot was also rich with many flocks, herds, and tents. Now they had a problem. The land could not support all of their animals and the people with them. The herdsmen taking care of Abram’s livestock argued with the herdsmen taking care of Lot’s livestock.

So Abram and Lot decided to separate. Abram said to Lot, “Look at this whole land before you.” He let Lot choose which land to live in. “If you go left, I will go right,” said Abram. “If you go right, I will go left.”

Lot looked out and saw that the entire plain of the Jordan was well watered like a beautiful garden, so he chose to live there. Lot journeyed to the east and lived in the cities on the plain near Sodom, and Abram lived in the land of Canaan.

After Lot left Abram, God again spoke to Abram. God said, “Look north, south, east, and west. I will give all that you see to your children forever. I will give you more descendants than you can count. Get up and walk through the land I have given you.” So Abram moved his tent to a place called Hebron, and he again built an altar to the Lord.

Abram believed God’s words and obeyed God’s call to leave his land and his family. God promised to bless Abram and the whole world through one of Abram’s descendants. God kept this promise when He sent Jesus, who left heaven and came into the world to rescue sinners.

Key Passage

For the LORD, is good;
His steadfast love endures forever,
and His faithfulness to all generations.
